Sub: Regarding to submit syllabus of bridge course for Master of Social Work (MSW) degree programme

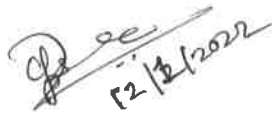

Dear Sir,

As we all know that students from different disciplines come for the MSW degree programme. ie: Science, commerce, medical and law etc. such student don't have minimum knowledge about this social work discipline. These students can't be adjust normally with the syllabus of social work as compare to students from arts and humanities. Keeping in mind the need, university authorities have decided to include bridge course at post-graduate level from academic year 2021-22. As per the directions, ad-hoc board in social work has prepared the syllabus of bridge course for 2 credits. With this letter the copy of the syllabus of bridge course is being submitted. This syllabus is ready to implement from academic year 2021-22 to the Master of Social Work (MSW) degree programme.
