

Important Guidelines for PET 2024 Examination

- 1. Arrival / Reporting time: Students must arrive at the examination centre 45 minutes before the start time. Late entry will not be allowed.
- 2. Admit Card & Photo: Attach a recent passport-sized photograph to the designated area on the Admit Card, attested by a Gazetted officer (Principal, Head of Department, or equivalent).
- 3. Signature: Sign the Admit Card at the time of attestation by the designated officer. (Before coming to the exam Centre)
- 4. Pen Usage: Use a black ballpoint pen to mark answers on the OMR answer sheet. The process of answer marking is shown in point number 9.
- 5. OMR Booklet: Fill in all required information on the OMR booklet accurately. (Additional booklet will not be provided in case of any mistake committed by the you)
- 6. Seat Number: Seat number is 16 digits long. Write it as indicated on the Admit Card on the OMR sheet properly and also on the question booklet in the space provided.
- 7. Subject Code: Write subject code from the ADMIT CARD and QUESTION PAPER on the OMR answer sheet, marking the circles accurately. Also, include the subject name, centre name, and exam date where indicated.
- 8. OMR Number: Write the OMR answer booklet number on the question paper booklet in the specified area.
- 9. Answer Marking: Clearly mark your answers. Avoid multiple markings for the same question, as they will not be considered.

Each question has four alternative responses marked (A) (B) (C) and (D). You have to darken the circle as indicated below on the correct response against each question

Example: where (C) is correct answer

- 10. Time Duration: The examination time is 01 hour (60 Minutes).
- 11. No Negative Marking: There is no penalty / negative marks for incorrect answers.
- 12. Question Format: The question booklet contains 50 multiple-choice questions; each carry 2 marks. All questions are compulsory so ensure to fill in the circles correctly on the OMR sheet.
- 13. Submission: At the end of the examination, return both the question booklet and the answer booklet to the invigilator. Students are not permitted to take these materials with them.